About the Track

A swirling syncopated kaleidoscope of words, music and beats. Sergeant Peppers meets David Bowie in a hyper real dream somewhere. Fierce energy with horns and bouncing melodic hooks.

Camp. Dramatic. Theatrical. Majestic. The track's visualiser is a psychedelic feast, a montage of original AI generated images, complete with a strobe warning. Timed for a Halloween inspired release campaign and playlists.

Frankie's Sound

Indie singer songwriter Frankie Bouchier weaves evocative stories with sound with his unique brand of indie synth pop. A classically trained multi-instrumentalist. His soundscape reflects a vast pallet of musical influences ranging from the guttural, rhythmic Balkan brass beats of Eastern Europe, the sweeping melodies of traditional Romani music, to psychedelic rock of the 60's woven with the synthy stylings of the 70's.

Frankie has performed alongside Broadway greats such as Patti LuPone, the Voice favorite, Darren Percival, and has appeared in multiple shows and performances inside Sydney's iconic Opera House. His sonorous voice saw him as a featured creature in the majestic Lumiphonic Creature Choir. Frankie currently based in Vancouver, Canada.
